A Gathering in Remembrance and Celebration

Friends Meeting for Worship is conducted according to the belief that the Light of God or Spirit lives in each of us. We sit together in silence, listening to the Spirit within and among us. There is no minister to guide us, and each of us contributes to the worship. Most often, this contribution is silent. Sometimes, however, someone may be moved by the Spirit to share a message with all of us. This message might be memories of Allan, words of comfort to Allan's family and friends, lessons we have learned from his life, or a prayer.

We ask that no one speak for a period of deep silence for the first ten minutes. After that we welcome those who feel moved by the Spirit to speak. Please allow a few minutes of silence between messages to allow time for reflection.

If you are seated in overflow space, please go to the main Meeting room to give your message. If you are on Zoom, remember to unmute yourself before speaking and then to re-mute.

After about an hour, one of the Greeters will stand and close the worship.

At the close of the Meeting, we invite you to enjoy photo remembrances of Allan's life. We also invite those present at the Meeting House to greet Allan's family, sign the guestbook and enjoy light refreshments.

We thank all who have joined us today.

Allan's Favorites

Allan loved the following psalm. He read it in Meeting for Worship a few weeks before his fall. In her many visits to Allan in the hospital, Carolyn often asked him if he would like to hear a psalm, and this was always the one he chose. Ever the traditionalist, Allan preferred the King James Version.

Psalm 121 A Song of Degrees

1. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
from whence cometh my help.
2. My help cometh from the Lord,
which made heaven and earth.
3. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
he that keepeth thee will not slumber.
4. Behold, he that keepeth Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.
5. The Lord is thy keeper:
the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
6. The sun shall not smite thee by day,
nor the moon by night.
7. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil:
he shall preserve thy soul.
8. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

As many know, Allan also loved sweet treats, including blueberry tea cake, chocolate cake and chocolate mousse. His recipes for these favorites are posted in the Zoom chat room and at <https://www.wellesleyfriendsmeeting.org/allan-kohrman.html>. Enjoy!
